REPAIR AND SERVICE YOU CAN TRUST

Oil-Air Product's extensive experience and testing capability gives our customers the confidence that each repaired unit will meet and exceed factory performance specifications.

Our team of experts are factory trained technicians so you know the repair will be done right the first time. We back that up with a one year warranty covering parts and workmanship. Extended warranty options are also available.

These guys are true professionals and continue to provide hydraulic repair services far beyond our expectations.

- Lenny at L.S. Marine

Always there to resolve our hydraulic repair needs. They do an excellent job keeping our equipment operating.
